

I signed the do not call list. My family has a right to not be bothered by telemarketers. What does the FCC not understand about my rights. Also I believe this is a state issue, not a federal issue.